LEGISLATIVE AND CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTS

The boundaries for State Legislative and U.S. Congressional seats are redrawn every 10 years, based on new data from the latest U.S. Census to ensure that the population size for each district is close to identical. As a result of the 2010 Census, Warren County was split into two New Jersey Legislative districts as of 2012, while Federal redistricting took effect in January 2013.

ABOUT WARREN COUNTY
Past and Present

Warren County came into existence in 1825 when an act of the New Jersey Legislature, passed on Nov. 20, 1824, took effect and separated the area from Sussex County. The county was named in honor of Dr. Joseph Warren who, although he had no known association with the area, earned a heroic reputation throughout the original 13 states for his devotion to the revolutionary cause, which led to his death in the battle of Bunker Hill. During the Revolutionary War, a large majority of the 13,000 colonists who lived in Sussex (and what is now Warren) supported the patriotic cause. Sussex was among three New Jersey counties commended by the Provincial Congress in 1775 for “spirited exertions” in raising minutemen for the fight for independence.

The county originally had the townships of Greenwich, Hardwick, Independence, Knowlton, Mansfield, Oxford and Pahaquarry, from which the present 22 municipalities were carved. The Town of Belvidere was chosen as the county seat, a decision that was considerably influenced by the action of General Garret D. Wall, who donated grounds for a county courthouse and public square in Belvidere.

Transportation has played an important role in the development of the county since its beginning. Its earliest residents were the Lenni Lenape, who lived along the rivers and streams of the region. The first Europeans to settle in the county were the Dutch, who came to Pahaquarry Township and dug for copper around 1650. During this period, they constructed a road from Pahaquarry to Kingston, N.Y., over which they transported the proceeds of their mining ventures. This road, the first commercial highway built in the United States, is still in existence today. Known as “Old Mine Road,” it traverses the Delaware Water Gap National Recreation Area, a major visitor attraction in the county.

Although it was the first area of the county to be settled by European colonists, Pahaquarry Township is no more. Largely vacated by the federal government’s disputed plan to build the Tocks Island Dam, much of Pahaquarry later became federal and state parkland. The County of Warren occupies an area of 364.55 square miles, is 32 miles long and has an average width of 13 miles. It ranks ninth in area and 19th in population among New Jersey’s 21 counties. Within the county is some of the most rugged and scenic terrain found in the state. The landscape is characterized by a series of ridges and valleys in a northeasterly / southwesterly direction. Elevations range from 125 feet to 1,600 feet above sea level. Mountain ranges and ridges that divide the county’s fertile river valleys include Kittatinny Mountain, Jenny Jump Mountain, Scott’s Mountain and Pohatcong Mountain. Streams and

In the early 1830s, the Morris Canal opened in New Jersey, with its western terminus at Phillipsburg on the Delaware River in Warren County. Some 33 miles of the canal’s 102-mile route to Jersey City were in Warren County, and the canal provided a thoroughfare for the county’s farm products to reach metropolitan markets. Villages such as Port Warren, Port Colden, Port Murray and Rockport owe their names and their existence to their location along the canal. The Morris Canal also brought together the anthracite coal from Pennsylvania with the limestone and iron ore from New Jersey in the formation of heavy industry. Railroads quickly replaced the canal and sped the development of industry within the county.

Today, sections of the Morris Canal are being transformed into a public greenway across the county. Moreover, The Museum at Bread Lock Park (site of a lock on the canal) in Franklin Township and the Jim & Mary Lee Museum at a former canal inclined plane in Greenwich Township welcome visitors to learn more about the canal; two rail and transportation museums operate in Phillipsburg; and a steam train excursion departing from Phillipsburg runs on the scenic “Bel-Del” railroad tracks along the Delaware River.

Transportation continues to play an important role in the county’s evolution. Interstate highways Route 78 and Route 80 cross the county, opening the area to many new residents who commute daily to their jobs in metropolitan New Jersey. Meanwhile, commercial and industrial areas are being created along the highway corridors, as Warren County’s proximity to New York, Philadelphia and New Jersey’s metropolitan area, along with the quality of life the county offers, make it an attractive place for homes and businesses.

THE WAYNE DUMONT, JR. ADMINISTRATION BUILDING, in White Township contains the office and meeting room of the Warren County Board of Chosen Freeholders, as well as other county departments. Opened in 1986, the building is named for State Senator Dumont (1914-1992) of Phillipsburg, who represented Warren County for 37 years.

General Information

The County of Warren occupies an area of 364.55 square miles, is 32 miles long and has an average width of 13 miles. It ranks ninth in area and 19th in population among New Jersey’s 21 counties. Within the county is some of the most rugged and scenic terrain found in the state. The landscape is characterized by a series of ridges and valleys in a northeasterly / southwesterly direction. Elevations range from 125 feet to 1,600 feet above sea level. Mountain ranges and ridges that divide the county’s fertile river valleys include Kittatinny Mountain, Jenny Jump Mountain, Scott’s Mountain and Pohatcong Mountain. Streams and rivers, all emptying into the Delaware River, include the Musconetcong, Paulinskill and Pequest rivers; Dunnsfield, Lopatcong and Pohatcong creeks; and Van Campens Brook. Fertile valleys have enabled the county to become an important agricultural district in the Garden State.

Governmental Structure

Warren County operates under the freeholder form of county government. The Board of Chosen Freeholders consists of three Freeholders each elected at large for staggered terms of three years. The Freeholder Director is chosen by the Freeholders at the board’s annual reorganization meeting in January. The Freeholders supervise, direct and administer all county services and functions through the various departments, autonomous boards, agencies and commissions. Reporting to the Board of Chosen Freeholders is an appointed County Administrator. In addition to its fiscal administration and the responsibility of linking the county’s municipalities with State and other local governmental units, the Board of Chosen Freeholders has these duties:

- To fulfill the following legislative responsibilities: (1) formulating county policies; (2) developing new county programs; (3) appointing members of the various commissions and boards; and (4) appropriating funds required from the 22 municipalities of the county to maintain all county services.
- And to provide for the following services: (1) general government; (2) regulations; (3) roads and bridges; (4) correctional and penal; (5) health and welfare; and (6) education.

The term "freeholder" originated in England, dating back to at least the 16th Century. Originally, a Freeholder was a person in the British Royal Court who was considered responsible in character or otherwise in favor with the King, and therefore a worthy recipient as an owner (holder) of land grants in the new American colony.

Many years later, on July 2, 1776, just two days before the Declaration of Independence was adopted in Philadelphia, the Provincial Congress of New Jersey met in Burlington and declared its separation from King George and the British parliament. The meeting provided that qualified voters were to elect various officers under the "hands" (approval) of six Freeholders. Legislation in 1798 set the composition of Freeholder Boards at one elected representative for each municipality, and in 1904 smaller boards were authorized. Warren is the only remaining county in New Jersey to have a three-member board, and voters reaffirmed keeping the board at that size in a 2007 referendum.

Quality of Life

Among Warren County’s greatest natural assets are clean air, clean water and open spaces for resident families, for visitor recreation, and for commerce. Nearly 40,000 acres are prime forest, and more than 61,000 acres are termed forestland of statewide importance. Parks, forests and conservation lands within the County total nearly 56,000 acres and include Jenny Jump State Forest, Stephens State Park, Allamuchy Mountain State Park, Worthington State Forest, Merrill Creek Environmental Resource Preserve, Pequest Trout Hatchery and Natural Resource Educational Center, and the Delaware Water Gap National Recreation Area. The county also has three sizable parcels purchased with open space preservation funds, the Marble Hill, White Lake and West Oxford Mountain Natural Resource Areas. Country roads for biking, hiking or driving offer many scenic vistas as well as country craft and antique shops for browsing, farms for picking fresh vegetables and fruits, and wineries that welcome visitors to taste their selections.

THE WARREN COUNTY HOME in Mansfield originally served as the county "poor farm." Only five years after Warren County was established, the Freeholder Board bought the property and erected this structure, making it the second county building project after the Courthouse in Belvidere. After being used as a youth shelter and then standing vacant for many years, the Warren County Home was completely refurbished and opened in December 2007 as the new home of the county Health Department.

The Delaware River, with 52 miles of county shoreline, is a major recreation resource. Anglers can try for bass, muskies, shad and a variety of other fish, while outdoors enthusiasts can enjoy canoeing, swimming, tubing and boating. The Delaware’s tributary streams and rivers, each having its own picturesque setting, are alive with sport fish and offer other recreational opportunities. Camping, bird watching and hunting are other outdoors activities that many county residents and visitors enjoy.

The Pequest Trout Hatchery and Natural Resource Education Center, operated by the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection’s Division of Fish and Wildlife, was sited in the Pequest River Valley because of the ample supply of pure water. The hatchery uses up to 7,000 gallons of ground water a minute to raise more than 600,000 trout each year for stocking in New Jersey’s publicly accessible waterways. Visitors are welcome at the hatchery for self-guided tours, and group programs are held by arrangement.

In 1993, a non-binding public referendum was passed by Warren County voters to allow an additional tax of up to 2 cents per $100 of assessed valuation for the purpose of acquiring areas of scenic and environmental value throughout the county. The open space trust fund has been tapped to buy county and municipal parkland, protect historic features and permanently retire the development rights on prime farmland. In 1999 and again in 2002, county voters approved non-binding open space referendums by large margins to increase the open space tax. This year, the Freeholders set the open space tax at 4.5 cents to help keep Warren County green. A number of municipalities have approved their own dedicated open space taxes as well, demonstrating the strong sentiment among residents for protecting the natural and historic resources that make the county a beautiful and unique place.

All or part of 16 Warren County communities are listed on the National Register of Historic Places, plus 60 other county structures or sites are listed on the register. The Town of Belvidere, the county seat, is noted for its Victorian-style architecture, with more than 200 homes listed on the register. Meanwhile, the Village of Hope in Hope Township contains many of the buildings constructed during the Moravian settlement period between 1769 and 1808.
The county offers a wide variety of cultural events through the community groups and educational institutions. Each year, the Warren County Cultural and Heritage Commission organizes concerts and special events in Oxford Township that revolve around the Oxford Furnace and Shippen Manor, which were built in the mid-1700s. Shippen Manor, home to the ironmasters of Oxford Furnace, has been restored and is open as a county museum.

Meanwhile, every summer the area’s agricultural heritage is on display with the Warren County Farmers’ Fair in Harmony Township (July 27 - August 3). Music fills the air at festivals in Phillipsburg (July 19-21) and Washington (Sept. 6-8); Belvidere puts its heritage on display with Victorian Days (Sept. 7-8) and Millbrook Village recreates 19th Century life with Millbrook Days (Oct. 5-6). Year-round and county-wide, there is always something interesting to do in Warren.

Located in Warren County are community parks, pools, country inns, golf courses, campgrounds, hiking trails, riding stables and fine restaurants, plus quaint historic villages, country shopping, scenic splendor, a relaxing environment, outdoor recreation, and many family entertainment attractions.

Health Care

Warren County prides itself on having two hospitals, both of which are expanding in size and services. St. Luke's Hospital–Warren Campus in Phillipsburg is a full-service hospital with divisions in medicine, surgery, family practice, gynecology and radiology. Community services include education, physical therapy, poison control, alcohol and drug recovery and speech and hearing services.

The other full-service hospital is the Hackettstown Regional Medical Center, owned and operated by Adventist HealthCare. The hospital offers a full range of surgical and medical care including 24-hour emergency services, as well as obstetric, therapy and rehabilitation services. A wide range of screenings and programs are offered to educate the public in early detection, prevention, and healthful living. The hospital underwent major construction and renovation including expansion of its ICU/ITU, ambulatory surgery area, diagnostic imaging department, and cardiopulmonary department, and opened a new Cancer Center featuring a Linear Accelerator for radiation treatments.

For long-term care, Warren County has several private nursing facilities and Warren Haven, the 180-bed skilled care facility run by the county in Mansfield Township.

Institutions of Learning

The county has eight secondary educational schools. Seven are public - including a county operated vocational-technical high school - while the private school is Blair Academy in Blairstown. There are 37 public and eight private Kindergartens, elementary and middle schools, with at least one located in every municipality except Hardwick Township.

Belvidere, Hackettstown and Phillipsburg have public high schools that receive students on a tuition basis from neighboring municipalities, while Phillipsburg also has an Alternative Secondary School. North Warren Regional High School, located in Blairstown, serves that township and three surrounding communities. Warren Hills Regional High School in Washington Township includes students from five communities.

Warren County Technical School was established in 1959 and offers a full array of technical and vocational training as well as basic educational courses. Located in Franklin Township, the school has an excellent job placement percentage for its graduates, and is highly regarded among employers.

There are two institutions of higher learning in the county, Warren County Community College and Centenary College. Founded in 1867, Centenary is a private, four-year college in Hackettstown that also offers 12 graduate programs. Founded in 1981 as a college commission, Warren County Community College opened its permanent campus along Route 57 in Washington Township in 1996 and opened an expansion in 2008. In 2011, the college opened a satellite location, the WCCC Phillipsburg Education Center at 445 Marshall St., Phillipsburg, which also features the Small Business Growth Center offering low-cost space and training for new businesses. The College offers a range of programs, including transfer degrees to four-year institutions, associate degrees and certificates in several career fields, on-line courses, and a variety of community services.

WARREN COUNTY TECHNICAL SCHOOL in December 2011 rededicated part of the 2003 expansion as the John B. LaPorta Theater for the Performing Arts, in memory of the long-time Board of Education member from Washington Township.

Learn More About Warren County

More information about Warren County is available on the Internet at the official County web site, found at www.co.warren.nj.us. The web site includes information about County departments, offices and affiliated agencies, links to municipalities and other County-related web pages, news items, photographs of scenes in Warren County, the current and previous county budgets and audits, job postings, announcements of requests for proposals, meeting schedules and the current agenda for meetings of the Board of Chosen Freeholders, as well as minutes from previous meetings back to 1993.
WAR MEMORIALS

On November 11, 1998, the Warren County War Memorial was dedicated and presented to the people of Warren County. Located next to the Warren County Courthouse at the corner of Second and Mansfield streets in Belvidere, the War Memorial consists of three panels of black granite, quarried in India. On them are inscribed the names of the 287 men and two women from Warren County who lost their lives or are listed as missing in action while on active duty in World War I, World War II, the Korean War and the Vietnam War. Another stone has been added with names of those killed in the recent Iraq conflict. The stones rest on a brick plaza equipped with granite benches, while above fly the United States flag and the POW-MIA flag. A time capsule holding various documents was placed there in 1999, and a voice repeater system was installed in 2000 so visitors can hear a recorded history of the monument and the names of those it memorializes.

THE WARREN COUNTY WAR MEMORIAL next to the Warren County Courthouse in Belvidere was erected in 1998 and is used as the setting for the County’s Veterans Recognition ceremonies.

Next to the War Memorial is the Purple Heart Memorial, which was dedicated on Nov. 5, 2000. This red granite marker - "red for the blood they shed" - is dedicated to all those who were wounded during our nation’s wars and conflicts. This memorial also includes granite benches, a brick-paved walkway, special lighting and landscaping.

In 2003, the Board of Chosen Freeholders launched the Warren County Veterans Recognition Program. The first person to be honored was Julius Hausold, a 108-year-old World War I veteran from Harmony Township. Since then, the County has held annual ceremonies at the War Memorial to recognize its war veterans and present them with the Warren County Distinguished Military Service Medal. Other ceremonies were held at nursing homes in the county. Applications continue to be received for future recognition ceremonies, including May 12, 2012.

THE PURPLE HEART MEMORIAL was dedicated in November 2000 "to all recipients of the 'Purple Heart,' those wounded during our nation's wars and conflicts." The $20,000 project, funded through donations, is located between the Warren County War Memorial and the front entrance of the Warren County Courthouse on Second Street in Belvidere.

NEW LIBRARY AND HUMAN SERVICES HEADQUARTERS OPENS

With a snip of a red ribbon stretched between two buildings, the Warren County Board of Chosen Freeholders opened the new headquarters of the Warren County Free Public Library system and the county Department of Human Services in April.

The new complex, purchased by the Board of Chosen Freeholders in December 2012, is comprised of two separate buildings on 12 acres located next to the county Road Department headquarters and near the Wayne Dumont, Jr. Administration Building and other County facilities along Route 519 South in White Township. One structure houses the library headquarters, which recently vacated its former cramped space in the Courthouse Annex in Belvidere. The other building is now occupied by divisions of the county Department of Human Services, including the Division of Administration and the county Adjuster formerly located in the Cummins Building in Belvidere, and the Division of Temporary Assistance and Social Services, which was also in the Courthouse Annex.

Historian and author Frank Dale researches some information using the expanded local history room.

The new library headquarters features a fun-filled area modeled on a 1950s diner for our county’s teens and tweens to hang out and use for educational research or just to explore new avenues of interests.

MARBLE HILL CELEBRATES “GRAND RE-OPENING”

A “Grand Re-Opening” of the Marble Hill Natural Area Preserve was held in April to celebrate improvements made to the recreation area. The 270-acre preserve is owned by the County and adjoins 165 acres of state open space and 165 acres of municipal parkland.

Situated along the Delaware River just north of Phillipsburg, the preserve’s contiguous forestland provides coverage for neotropical song birds and other migratory song birds that use the river as a flyway during migration. Visitors are invited to follow newly established trails through dense thickets of rhododendron, which are particularly colorful in late spring and early summer.

With the help of the state, township and volunteers, Warren County cleared and blazed nearly 4 miles of new trails, installed multiple informational kiosks and interpretive signs, and created additional parking areas along River Road and Marble Hill Road. Learn more at the new Dept. of Land Preservation pages on the Warren County website www.co.warren.nj.us.
EVENTS FROM 2012

On Sept. 11, the 11th anniversary of the terrorist attack on the USA, Warren County dedicated a new Emergency Service and 9/11 Memorial, located near the county Public Safety building and Fire Academy in Washington Township. The memorial includes a steel beam from the World Trade Center in New York City and two granite stones, symbolizing the Twin Towers that fell that day. The names of Warren County residents who lost their lives in the 9/11 attacks, and those of the emergency service members who have died in the line of duty in Warren County over the years, are inscribed on the memorial.

In October, the Warren County Economic Development Advisory Council presented the forum “NJ Resources for Business Growth” in conjunction with state officials. Held at Centenary College in Hackettstown, the event brought the business community together with representatives of key state and local agencies who provided information about important resources available to businesses at no or minimal cost. Here, Freeholder Jason J. Sarnoski welcomes the attendees to the Sitnik Theater of the Lackland Performing Arts Center, where the stage was set for the theater’s current production.

Culinary Arts students from Warren County Technical School participated in the state’s first-ever tech school “cook-off” at the annual New Jersey Association of Counties convention in Atlantic City. Their appetizer – pulled pork barbecue with black bean relish served on a toasted plantain chip – was a crowd favorite. Freeholder Richard D. Gardner, who served as president of NJAC for 2012, checked out Warren Tech’s display.

The Freeholders proclaimed National POW-MIA Recognition Day in September to remind everyone of the personal sacrifices made by all war veterans and to join in remembering the thousands of who were prisoners of war and those still listed as missing in action as a result of all wars. Terry Lee of the organization Rolling Thunder accepted the proclamation and noted that still listed as missing in action are 73,679 from WWII; 7,992 from Korea; 126 from the Cold War; 1,659 from Vietnam and 6 from the Iraq and Gulf Wars.

World War II veteran Thomas J. Lynch, who served with the Army in Central Europe, laughs about being probably the oldest soldier at Warren County’s 10th Veterans Recognition Ceremony in May. Lynch is joined by (l-r) Master of Ceremonies Terry Lee; Freeholder Director Everett A. Chamberlain, Dennis Smith, president, and Jack Trimmer, trustee, of the Warren County War Memorial Corp.; and Freeholder Richard D. Gardner. The 2013 Veterans Recognition Ceremony is planned for Saturday, Oct. 5, and applications for recognition can be obtained by calling 800-554-8540 or on the county website.
