DESCRIPTION OF SERVICES

A non-profit corporation organized for the purpose of providing quality legal education, advice and representation to the low income population of Warren County. Examples of the types of cases handled are as follow: family law, housing, health, mental health, employment, public benefits, and consumer law.

Our office provides assistance to seniors through our Legal Services for Senior Citizens program. The type of cases handled for seniors is the same as listed above. We also provide housing assistance to persons affected by AIDS/HIV through our HOPWA Program.
